HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

Numbering Fifteen Artists Will Delight Maysville Music Lovers.

There has been organized at the high school an orchestra, which meets every Tuesday night and practices from 7:30 until 9:30 o'clock. In addition to a dozen or more high school students, we have with us Messrs. J. H. Richardson, Mrs. C. E. Geisel, John Kain and Miss Stella Archdeacon. Mr. Kain is conductor, and the other adults, members of former Maysville orchestras, are lending their experience and support to its successful inauguration. We have just now begun practice on the music for the senior class play, which will be held at the high school Friday night, April 9. From the way they played "Tipperary" and some selections from southern melodies last Tuesday night, the audience will be as much interested in the maiden appearance of the orchestra as in the play. We have felt the need of an orchestra in our school for the last two years, but could never get the right influences properly focused until here of late, when the above-mentioned experienced musicians very graciously gave their time and service free, and now we feel that a good orchestra is one of the assured facts. Next year when we go to the state tournament in our annual contest with other high schools in athletics, declamation and music, we are anticipating taking an orchestra along and getting in the orchestral contest. We are still in need of others who desire to play on the violin, flute, cello and trombone. As many of the parents desire music in the homes, we feel that this orchestra will not only serve the purpose of stimulating home practice, but will stimulate, enlarge and intensify the interest and skill of your boys and girls by being under the instruction of the adult members of our orchestra. It may be best to add that on our practice nights we desire no visitors, but later we earnestly ask your attendance upon any of our public functions.

W. J. CAMPBELL, Supt. Maysville Public Schools.

GATTY SELLARS

Delights Large and Appreciative Audience At Christian Church Last Night In Organ Recital.

A representative crowd of Maysville music lovers was present at the Christian church last night to hear Mr. Gatty Sellars, the world-famous English organist composer, in his organ recital.

Mr. Sellars' program was varied and his command of the organ was absolute and he produced the most remarkable effects one is likely to hear. Storm, by Moritz. In the former illustration and technique most excellent and delighted the audience.

One of the most remarkable features in last night's recital, as stated by a musical critic, was the group of two descriptive numbers, "The Russian Patrol," by Rubinstein, and "The Storm," by Moritz. In the former there were the realistic imitations of the tramping of soldiers, the sound of the rifle, the drum, etc. In "The Storm" piece, one received the thrill by hearing what seemed like a real storm in the Alps. With the lights of the church lowered one could imagine he saw the lightning.

At the beginning of the war Mr. Sellars was in Germany. He returned immediately to England and was requested to go to New York City to complete a contract, which he did, and is now making a brief tour while in this country.

Mr. Sellars will be heard again at the Christian church this evening. The recital begins at 8 o'clock. In tonight's performance there will be several descriptive numbers and other famous pieces to make an entire change of program.

THE LAST OF THE LENTEN READINGS THIS SEASON.

The fifth Lenten reading will be given this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. E. C. Phister. The subject for instruction will be "The Holy Communion." "The Chained Cross" will also be read. It is a gem in literature, full of consolation for those who, in faith, submit to the Master's will.

The ladies who have given their services as readers for these delightful occasions are Mrs. E. C. Phister, Mrs. James Ross, Miss Alice Gill, Mrs. William Deru and Mrs. Edwin Mathews.

LOOK AT THE "LUCY LEE."

The big show window of Williams' drug store in Third street is a very beautiful work of art and displays a perfect ship, the "Lucy Lee," the handiwork of pharmacist W. D. Williams, chief deputy in the Williams emporium. Go look at the window, as it would take half a column of type to properly describe it.

The work reflects much credit on Mr. Williams.

DR. MULLINS

Government Health Expert May Come To Maysville To Examine Eyes of Children.

As a result of the recent visit of Miss Linda Neville, executive secretary of the Kentucky Society for the Prevention of Blindness, the Mason Community Woman's Club adopted a resolution asking the co-operation of the Board of Health and Medical Board in an invitation to Dr. Mullins, United States government expert, to come to Maysville for the purpose of examining the eyes of the school children in both city and country.

Through the efforts of Miss Neville, Congress recently appropriated $50,000 to pay for this great work.

Dr. Mullins spent last week examining the school children of Lexington, and our community should take advantage of the opportunity offered as soon as possible.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on April 2, the program being in charge of the Humane Department.

SUIT FILED.

Yesterday in the Mason Circuit Court W. H. Moore and Ida E. Moore, through their attorney, Hon. A. D. Cole, filed suit against the C. & O. Railway Company for $1,500. It is asserted in the petition that the defendant failed to comply with certain parts of a contract between plaintiff and defendant, wherefore the plaintiff has been damaged to extent of the amount named above.

They are three of the leading fine Clothing Manufacturers in America. See their "ads" in The Saturday Evening Post. We also carry the Cloth-Craft Clothes. Prominent among this line is their blue serge suit $130. The best blue serge suit on the market for the money. You want to see it.

Our stock of Shoes is the most complete in the State. Hanan, Nettleton, Walk-Over and Douglas. No other house in the State carries as many lines of good shoes.

Our stock of Shirts, Underwear, Neckwear and Hose is the most complete in town. If you are going away and need a Trunk, Bag or Suit Case, let us show you through ours. You will be pleased with quality and price.

WOMAN PAROLED.

ANOTHER TRAIN VICTIM.

Ashland, Ky.—Russell Preston, 14 years old, son of I. M. Preston, fell beneath a freight train on which he had been riding and died shortly afterward.

The Commonwealth's motion for a change of venue in the case of T. Q. Wallace and others charged with the murder of Houston Underwood was sustained by Judge Hugh Riddell in the Fifth Circuit Court.

THE BEST YET

If some customers praise our stock we are pleased. If others add further compliment, our gratification grows. But when all our customers tell us our Ready-to-Wear line has never been so smart and so moderately priced, we realize how completely we have out run every best effort of the past.

Remarkable Values in Suits at $15, $17½, $19½, $22½ and $25. Coats at $6½, $8½, $10, $12 and $15 that you could wear with assurance on Fifth Avenue. The majority of merchants consider $10 very little for a Silk Poplin gown, and they are right. It is a very moderate price. But we are not with the majority, we are a rare exception, for we offer a Silk Poplin dress for $6½, and a well made, good looking dress of course. At $10 to $19½ we have some incomparable values in Silk Poplin, Crepe and Taffeta Gowns.

ATTRACTIVE HIGH LUSTRE SILKS

For women who want to be correctly gowned without going to extremes, these silks will especially appeal. Actual comparison of prices with the fabrics is the surest way to convince yourself of the exceptional values. Mousseline Satin—a weave commended for its wearing qualities is presented in black, white and several lovely spring colors $1. Satin de Luxe, of superior quality and softness, black only ¾. Yard wide. Crepe Meteor in several lovely shades, also black $1½ to $2.

LANCING NEW FREEDOM.

An index to the fiscal chronicle of the Wilson administration so far would run something like this:

1. Treasury net balance, $166,000,000.
2. Ordinary revenues offset ordinary expenditures.
3. Tariff revised drastically downward.
4. Income tax law passed.
5. Deficiency in revenues.
6. Record appropriations by Congress.
7. Emergency war tax levied.
8. More record breaking appropriations.
9. Revenue deficiency grows.
10. Treasury's impending bankruptcy discussed.
11. Government bond sales in prospect.

Although the total appropriations of the Sixty-third Congress, which finished its labors about two weeks ago, were $177,000,000 larger than the aggregate appropriations of the Sixty-first Congress, the last one controlled in both branches by the Republicans, they were still $83,000,000 less than the estimates of expenditures submitted by the New Freedom directors. The balance in the Treasury is hovering around $10,000,000, and is more than represented by Treasury holdings of silver and of fractional currency. The actual Treasury deficit at the end of next June promises to be anywhere from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 or more.

The New Freedom evidently comes high, but if we must have it, we have got to pay for it.—New York Sun.

SEEMS TO BE TRUE.

It is giving out at Washington that the appropriations of the last Congress will total $2,231,000,000, which is $113,000,000 more than the Congress before and $177,000,000 more than the last Republican Congress. It is predicted by the Democratic chairman of the Appropriations Committee that the deficit on June 30 will be $133,000,000. It looks like deficit and Democratic administrations just go together, hand in hand, in spite of all you can do. This seems to apply in both state and nation.—Glasgow Republican.

BUY-A-BALE!

Skirts are to be full. The pendulum of fashion is to swing back, as it always does. Women of modish tastes, we are told, will wear skirts at least six yards in circumference.

Paris, in spite of the war, is having its way. American designers and fashion leaders who were abroad last summer, it seems had a glimpse just before the war broke, of skirts in exclusive Paris shops showing this reaction from sentimentality to fullness. The idea has been incubating since, all unexpected by the public. Now the six-yard skirts are about to sweep sent feminine draperies to the fashion limbo.

And maybe it's just as well. The designers doubtless had no economic purpose in view, but big skirts are an economic boon nevertheless. Full skirts mean more material. That means more cotton cloth. The cotton market, disorganized by the shrinkage of woman's clothing, may come into its own again. There will be more work for the cotton factories, added to the war orders. As a result, there will be a steadily increasing domestic demand for raw cotton.

If all the women take to full skirts, they may use up that unmarketable surplus, and restore prosperity to the south.

"WOULD THAT MY ENEMY WOULD WRITE A BOOK."

A dispatch from Washington says that Speaker Champ Clark instead of devoting his time to the lecture platform this summer, will write two books. What he has to say of W. J. B. will probably fill at least one of his books, and it should be "mighty interesting reading."

Job For the Office Hunter.

"Senator, you promised me a job."
"But there are no jobs."
"I need a job, Senator."
"Well, I'll ask for a commission to investigate as to why there are no jobs, and you can get a job on that."—Kansas City Journal.

Anything To Oblige.

"I see blondes will be the style this year," remarked the idle rich man.
"Like that so?" remarked his brunette wife with a well-bred yawn. "In that case, do you wish me to be one, or would you prefer a divorce?"

FOUR SEASON FOR OYSTER TRADE

New York, March 25. The oyster season which will come to an end one week from today has been the poorest which the oystermen have known in many years. Some of the largest concerns in the business do not hesitate to characterize it as the poorest in its history. The volume of oyster trade this winter has rarely reached 60 per cent of normal. The demand for the big valves has been affected by general business conditions, by a very poor crop in 1914, by the mild weather during the best oyster months, and to no small extent by the disappearance of the oyster by the health authorities.

American exports for the month of February amounted to nearly $300,000,000, the highest previous figure for February having been near $200,000,000.

THE MOONSHINERS' JUDGE

Judge A. M. J. Cochran, a Federal Judge who, a part of the time, sits in Breathitt county, Kentucky,—which, by the way, is no longer bloody. However, they still make lots of illicit whisky down there, and these moonshiners are constantly up before Judge Cochran who, although a just judge, treats them like a father and tries to make them see that what they do is really wrong and against the law.

The April number of The American Magazine contains a very fine picture of Hon. A. M. J. Cochran of Maysville, Judge of the Federal Court for the Eastern Kentucky District and the following article:

It was Federal Court Day in Jackson, Breathitt county, Kentucky. "Bloody Breathitt," the newspapers used to call it back in the days when the Hargesses were hunting the Cockrills, and the Cockrills were picking off the Hargesses. Ten that all ended five years ago when Branch Hargess shot his father in the old man's store. Today Jackson has electric lights, and a good hotel, and a clock in the court house tower.

I stood in the store where Judge Hargess had been shot and watched the crowd filing into the court house across the way. Long, lean and misshapen, countless, except when the contents of their hip pockets made it desirable to keep their coats, they had come out of their mountain cabins 500 strong to give evidence for or against the United States at America in the cases of a hundred of their fellows charged with their distilling or the sale of whisky. When they had crowded their way in side I stepped across and entered, too. "Bill Sparks," called the bailiff loudly, as I passed through the door. "Is Bill Sparks here?"

From out of the ragged mass an unkempt individual separates himself and starts ambling down the aisle, tattered hat in hand. His progress is slow, for the aisle is filled with dogs and muddy feet; but halfway to the front his pace quickens, he seems startled into new life; another voice has spoken. "Come along, Bill," it says, "come right up front here and take the witness chair."

And Bill comes. In the bewildering haze of strange surroundings he has heard the voice of authority. If the Judge wants him up there, why, that's a different thing, for everybody knows the Judge. He has been coming to Jackson "for 13 years, and there ain't a man ever said Judge Cochran ain't square."

From 8 o'clock in the morning until nearly 4 at night, I sat in the court room and watched the ragged, pathetic line of moonshiners and bootleggers go by.

BIG MEETING

Planned By Kentucky Educational Association At Louisville April 21-24.

The program for the general session of the Kentucky Educational Association at Louisville, as announced Tuesday by President W. P. King, superintendent of the Newport public schools, includes a new feature for the convention scheduled for April 21-24. The special feature will be a "literary evening," during which attention will be centered on Kentucky writers and their works. Wednesday evening, April 21, the program will be dedicated in honor of James Lane Allen, Kentucky's distinguished writer. It is hoped that Mr. Allen will give an address. Other well-known literatures of the Blue Grass state will participate. Cade Young Rice, author and poet, will be among them. The special evening, it is hoped, will inspire the teachers with a greater love for the literature of the state of Kentucky.

The program for the general sessions will consist of addresses by several of the ablest educators in America. P. P. Claxton, commissioner of education; Dr. Herbert L. Willett, University of Chicago; and other national characters.

HEREAFTER THE BASIS OF ADJUSTMENT WILL BE In Ford sizes, plain tread, 6,000 miles; Kant Slip 7,500 miles. All other sizes, plain tread, 5,000 miles; Kant Slip tread 6,000 miles. The word "adjust" is merely figurative, because in 1914 the total adjustment in Kelly-Springfield Tires for the whole United States was less than 1 per cent. You get this unequalled service in uninterrupted mileage—no adjustment.

Before buying some other tire at a lower price analyze the basis of adjustment offered by the other maker—see what you really do get for less money, and how much it will actually cost you to get 5,000 or 6,000 miles out of it, cheaper tires.

We have taken the selling prices of Plain Tread Kelly-Springfield Tires, which are guaranteed for 6,000 miles on Ford cars and 5,000 miles on other cars, also selling prices of the cheap plain tread tires. Bear in mind that since the reduction of prices most of the other tire companies have withdrawn their mileage guarantee and cheapened the quality of their tires. However, for the sake of comparison, we will assume that their old guarantee of 3,500 miles is still in effect. Here are some figures that should make you "sit up and take notice."

On a FORD Car.

If Kelly-Springfields are used it will cost $63.16 for 6,000 miles. If cheap tires are used it will cost $70.80 for 6,000 miles.

On a Car Using 33x4 Tires.

If Kelly-Springfields are used it will cost $95.60 for 5,000 miles. If cheap tires are used it will cost $109.00 for 5,000 miles.

On a Car Using 34x4 Tires.

If Kelly-Springfields are used it will cost $98.80 for 5,000 miles. If cheap tires are used it will cost $110.50 for 5,000 miles.

This is not theory, but is based on the selling prices and actual mileage guarantee of both classes of tires. In addition to the above saving, by using Kelly-Springfield Tires, you have practically no blow-outs (on account of the greater number of plies of fabric in the Kelly-Springfield), no sand-blisters, no separation of tread from the fabric, few punctures and on account of the elimination of these troubles, less expense for repairing tubes. Kelly-Springfield Tires will cost you less per mile than any other tire made, regardless of price. Let us show you our list of testimonials from local drivers whom you know, who have gotten as high as 14,500 miles out of Kelly-Springfields.

When a man spends 75 cents a round for drinks and then refuses his children a few nickels to go to a picture show because they are spending money on foolishness, his batting average as a Good Fellow would be about .000000003, if I was the official scorer, says Mister Luke McInnis.

In LABOR'S WORLD.

The case of the state of Washington against the Mountain Timber Company, which is soon to be taken up in the Supreme Court of the United States, will afford the first test before the highest tribunal of the constitutionality of a compulsory workmen's compensation act. This Ohio compensation act has been held valid, but it differs from the Washington act in that it is not an elective measure.

In the hope of bringing the member ship up to 10,000, President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, has issued a manifesto calling upon all national and international unions to organize the "unorganized workers in every field of honorable human endeavor." Particular districts are given to organize stenographers, typewriters, bookkeepers, office assistants, elevator operators, porters, janitors and domestic servants.

After investigating 26 department stores, employing about 6,000 girls, the Massachusetts Minimum Wage Commission reports that one-third of the girls receive less than $6 a week, that one-third receive from $6 to $8 a week, and that the remainder, who receive more than $8, are most office employees.

Representatives of Ohio labor organizations are to meet in Columbus next month to take steps to combat state wide prohibition.

TREATED LIKE CRIMINALS

Redfield Would Make It Appear That American Manufacturers Are Frauds and Crooks.

(Philadelphia Inquirer.)

Probably the most amazing phase of the controversy between Secretary Redfield and the manufacturers of this country is the cocksure and complacent manner in which the secretary and his supporters place the manufacturers in the class of offenders. Reading the report of Redfield's expert and the comment of the New York free-trade newspapers on it, one would almost suppose that the manufacturers were criminals. Indeed, commenting upon the rejoinder of the Montgomery county manufacturers to the claim that they did not know how to run their business, this dignified member of the cabinet says: "It looks as though we had got under their skins. I hope that they will not oblige me by their comments to publish further details." How does this threat sound ascending from an official adviser of the President of the United States? Mr. Redfield is in possession of any information to which the people of the United States are entitled, why should he not give it to them as a right instead of using it as a means of "getting even" with some one that has had the temerity to criticize him?

From time immemorial the free trade theorists have claimed that the protective tariff brought undue prosperity to the manufacturers, just as though there could be too much prosperity. But they fail to call attention to the fact that when one manufacturer is prosperous—moderately or otherwise—a thousand men in his employ are enjoying the result of that prosperity in good wages and steady employment. The great difficulty is that persons who do not live in manufacturing centers can not appreciate the disastrous effect of their free trade upon the workingman.

Here we have the New York news papers lamenting the decrease in imports. Says one of them: "Every dollar's worth of merchandise that came into this port made work for New York labor and profit for New York business. We do not doubt it in the least. And it can be said with equal truthfulness that every dollar's worth of merchandise that came into New York in this way helped to bring richness to a Philadelphia mill worker and loss to a Philadelphia manufacturer. It will be seen that a great deal depends upon whose ox is gored."

Away with the cant that the Wilson Underwood bill has been anything but a failure. It is welcomed by the exporters and the manufacturers of the old world, but every penny put into the pocket of the foreign workingman means a penny taken out of the pocket of the American workingman. The suggestion that this can be equalized by a reduction in prices and the cost of living has been proved a fallacy. It is a matter of record that every time an article has been put on the free list—that is, reduced below the protective point in this country—the prices have been advanced in the foreign countries. We lose the revenue and they get the money. We have tried the experiment on lumber, on hides and on sugar, and we have always gotten the worst of it. And yet some persons and some news papers continue to glaze over the enactment of the Underwood law.

FOOD QUESTION

Settled With Perfect Satisfaction.

It is not an easy matter to satisfy all the members of the family at meal time, as every housewife knows.

And when the husband can't eat ordinary food without causing trouble, the food question becomes doubly annoying.

An Illinois woman writes: "My husband's health was poor, he had no appetite for anything I could get for him, it seemed."

"He suffered severely with stomach trouble, was hardly able to work, was taking medicine continually, and as soon as he would feel better would go to work again only to give up in a few weeks."

"One day, seeing an advertisement about Grape-Nuts, I got some and he tried it for breakfast the next morning."

"We all thought it was pretty good although he had no idea of using it regularly. But when my husband came home at night he asked for Grape-Nuts."

"It was the same next day and I had to get it right along, because when we would get to the table the question, 'Have you any Grape-Nuts?' was a regular thing. So I began to buy it by the dozen pkgs."

"My husband's health began to improve right along. I sometimes felt offended when I'd make something, thought he would like for a change, and still hear the same old question, 'Have you any Grape-Nuts?'"

"He got so well that for the last two years he has hardly lost a day from his work. And we are still using Grape-Nuts."

CRYING FOR HELP

Lots of It in Maysville But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed.

Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble. It is often the kidney's cry for help. Heed it.

Read what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for overworked kidneys. Read what Doan's have done for Maysville people.

Lang Stevens, Maysville, Ky., says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had backache, which extended into my kidneys. The kidney action was irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family, so I gave them a trial. They helped me greatly."

Mr. Stevens is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Stevens had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. ### NOTABLE ANNIVERSARY FOR EUROPE.

London, March 25.—Many of the London papers this morning recalled to day as the one hundredth anniversary of the beginning of the last general European war before the outbreak of the great conflict now raging. It was on March 25, 1815, that the allied powers, in consideration over the news of Napoleon's return from Elba, hastily reconvened their congress at Vienna and concluded a new treaty of alliance.

By this treaty the cabinets of Great Britain, Russia, Austria and Prussia engaged to "unite their forces against Bonaparte and his faction, in order to prevent him from again troubling the peace of Europe." They each agreed to furnish 150,000 men for the prosecution of the war, and if necessary, to draw forth their entire military force of every description. By a secret treaty, concluded at the same time, it was stipulated that the contracting parties should not lay down their arms until they had effected the destruction of Napoleon, and that England should supply the funds. All the lesser powers of Europe needed to these treaties soon after their ratification. Then began the short and vigorous campaign that ended in Napoleon's final overthrow at Waterloo.

BEGIN WORK ON NEW STATION FOR CHICAGO.

Chicago.—Thousands of unemployed men were put to work on Chicago's mammoth new Union Station, a $65,000,000 project, which will be completed December 18, 1918, according to plans. The new plant will house the Pennsylvania lines, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and the Chicago & Alton. It does not mean a consolidation of any of the railroad terminals, simply the replacing the structure at Adams and Canal streets with a great plant.

The main building will be ten stories and have three sub-basements. It will be an imposing looking structure, with great, massive columns.

GYMNASTS AFTER TITLES.

These include flying rings, long horse, parallel bars, horizontal bars, rope climbing, side horse, club swinging and tumbling. The meet will be conducted under the rules and auspices of the Amateur Athletic Union and will determine the national gymnastic championships of that organization.
